Bird Global and Switchback II Corporation Announces November 2, 2021 Extraordinary General Meeting Date to Approve Proposed Business Combination

(Los Angeles, CA & Dallas, TX) – October 7, 2021 – Bird Global, Inc. (“Bird Global”) and Switchback II Corporation (NYSE: SWBK) (“Switchback II”) today announced that the Extraordinary General Meeting of Switchback II (the “Extraordinary General Meeting”) to vote on the previously announced business combination with Bird Rides, Inc. (“Bird”), a leader in shared short range environmentally friendly electric transportation, is scheduled to be held on November 2, 2021, at 10:00 a.m., Eastern time. The closing of the business combination is subject to approval by Switchback II’s shareholders and the satisfaction of other customary closing conditions. Switchback II shareholders at the close of business on the record date of August 16, 2021 (the “Record Date”) are entitled to notice of the Extraordinary General Meeting and to vote at the Extraordinary General Meeting. Following the closing of the proposed business combination, Bird Global will be listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the new ticker symbol “BRDS”.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) has declared effective Bird Global’s registration statement on Form S-4 (File No: 333-256187) (as amended, the “Registration Statement”), which includes a prospectus of Bird Global and a definitive proxy statement of Switchback II in connection with Switchback II’s Extraordinary General Meeting.

“Today’s announcement marks a significant milestone in our path to becoming a public company and scaling our mission. Following our outperformance in the first half of this year and continued progress against our strategic initiatives, Bird is well positioned to deliver on our objectives with a clear focus on profitability. As we look ahead, we intend to build upon our market leadership and grow our business, which currently only scratches the surface of the estimated $800 billion annual market opportunity for micromobility,” said Bird Founder and CEO, Travis VanderZanden.

Jim Mutrie and Scott McNeill, Co-Chief Executive Officers and Directors of Switchback II, commented, “We are proud to help bring Bird to the public markets and strongly believe in the company’s mission to provide environmentally friendly transportation for everyone. Travis and the Bird team have demonstrated execution excellence since inception and continue to deliver strong operating and financial results in this expansive market. We look forward to our continued partnership with Bird as it enters its next chapter.”

Recent Business Highlights and Milestones

- As previously reported on August 19, 2021, Bird’s second quarter financial performance for the three-month period ended June 30, 2021 significantly exceeded Bird’s expectations. Results included:
  - Revenue of $60.0 million, 36% above expectations, representing a year-over-year increase of 477% versus the same period in 2020, and a 43% increase versus the same period in 2019.
  - Gross margin of 26% as a percentage of revenue, representing an 85 percentage point increase over the prior year period.

- Ride Profit Margin (before Vehicle Depreciation) as a percentage of sharing revenue of 49%, compared to 15% for the prior year period and outperforming expectations by 13 percentage points.
  - Net loss of $43.7 million versus a net loss of $50.0 million in the prior year period.
  - Adjusted EBITDA loss of $11.5 million, an improvement of 73% year-over-year, exceeding expectations by 48%.
- In addition to its financial performance, Bird has also recently achieved many operational milestones including:
    - The unveiling of its retail e-bike to meet demand in the $20 billion dollar consumer e-bike market
    - A partnership with Best Buy to make Bird's newe-bike available on the retailer's website throughout the United States
    - The introduction of Bird's shared e-bike, which expands Bird's serviceable addressable market by five billion trips annually, will soon launch in San Diego
    - Availability of Bird's shared micro electric vehicles in New York City and in more than 300 cities globally

Switchback II Shareholder Vote

Every vote is important and Switchback II encourages all shareholders to make their voice heard by voting as soon as possible, regardless of the number of shares held.
